The United States Constitution

Article II, Section 1 of the U.S. Constitution imposes only three eligibility requirements on persons serving as president, based on the officeholder's age, time of residency in the U.S., and citizenship status:

U.S. Constitution – Presidential Candidate Eligibility

"No person except a natural born Citizen, or a Citizen of the United States, at the time of the Adoption of this Constitution, shall be eligible to the Office of President; neither shall any person be eligible to that Office who shall not have attained to the Age of thirty-five Years, and been fourteen Years a Resident within the United States."

GLOBAL LETTER

TO: All Sovereign Nations, the United Nations, the International Criminal Court, the International Court of Justice, and all peoples suffering from war crimes

FROM: The Office of the President-Elect of the United States of America

DATE: April 13, 2026 / Effective January 20, 2029

SUBJECT: Invitation to File Charges for War Crimes Committed by U.S. Persons or Institutions — And a Pledge of Extradition

SECTION 1: AN ACKNOWLEDGMENT

To every nation, every community, every survivor of war crimes that were enabled, ordered, funded, or carried out by actors connected to the United States of America:

We have failed you.

For generations, the United States has demanded accountability from others while exempting itself. We have spoken of human rights while practicing impunity. We have invoked the rule of law while hiding behind technicalities, pardons, and power.

That era ends on January 20, 2029.

Today, I issue a formal, binding, and unconditional invitation to every country on earth:

If your nation has concluded — through its own judicial processes, its own investigations, or its own suffering — that war crimes have been committed by any person or institution acting under the color of U.S. authority or U.S. benefit, you are invited to file charges.

We will not deny. We will not delay. We will not protect.

SECTION 2: WHAT CONSTITUTES A VALID CHARGE

Your country may file a request for extradition if the following conditions are met:

1. Your nation has jurisdiction — either because the crimes occurred on your territory, affected your citizens, or violated your sovereignty.
2. Your nation has conducted a good-faith investigation and issued a lawful arrest warrant for a specific individual or individuals.
3. The alleged conduct constitutes a war crime, crime against humanity, or genocide as defined under:
 - The Rome Statute;
 - The Geneva Conventions and their Additional Protocols;
 - A binding resolution of the UN Security Council; or
 - Customary international law.
4. The United Nations (via the Security Council, General Assembly, or International Court of Justice) has issued a determination that war crimes are occurring in the relevant context — or your nation requests that the UN make such a determination, and the United States will support that request.

SECTION 3: WHO CAN BE CHARGED

You may file charges against any of the following persons or institutions:

- Current or former elected officials of the United States, including the President, Vice President, members of Congress, and state officials.
- Current or former appointed officials of any executive branch agency, including the Departments of Defense, State, Justice, Homeland Security, and Intelligence Community.
- Military personnel of any rank, including commanders who issued orders and soldiers who carried them out.
- Private actors, including:
 - Bankers and financial institutions that knowingly funded or enabled war crimes;
 - Executives and employees of defense contractors and private military companies;
 - Corporate officers whose companies provided logistics, weapons, or technology used in war crimes.

No one is exempt. No office is immune. No pardon will be recognized.

SECTION 4: HOW TO FILE

To initiate proceedings, your nation should:

1. Submit an official diplomatic note to the U.S. Department of State, marked: "Urgent — Extradition Request Under EO 2029-01"
2. Include the following documentation:
 - The arrest warrant issued by your competent judicial authority.
 - A summary of the evidence supporting probable cause that the named person(s) committed war crimes.
 - A statement that your nation has concluded, through its own legal processes, that war crimes occurred.
 - Any UN determination already in existence — or a request that the UN make such a determination.

3. Submit a copy to the Office of the Attorney General of the United States and to the UN Office of Legal Affairs.

The United States will acknowledge receipt within 72 hours.

SECTION 5: THE UNITED STATES' PLEDGE

Upon receipt of a valid request meeting the conditions above, the United States pledges the following:

- Arrest of the named person(s) within 14 days, if they are present on U.S. soil.
- Extradition within 30 days of final judicial authorization.
- No use of a presidential pardon to block or delay extradition.
- No safe harbor — we will not warn the accused, hide them, or transfer them to a third country to evade justice.
- Use of U.S. tax dollars to fund the arrest, detention, legal processing, and transportation of the accused.

If the accused is outside U.S. jurisdiction, we will cooperate with INTERPOL and your nation to the fullest extent permitted by law.

SECTION 6: TAKING RESPONSIBILITY

This letter is not a trap. It is not a trick. It is not diplomacy as theater.

It is a confession — that the United States has done wrong. And it is a commitment — that we will no longer protect our own wrongdoers.

We do not ask you to trust our past. We ask you to hold us accountable going forward.

If your people have suffered from American bombs, American drones, American funding of proxy militias, American banks laundering money for warlords, American lawyers designing the memos that became torture programs — file your charges.

We will extradite.

SECTION 7: A WARNING TO OUR OWN

To any American official, commander, contractor, or banker reading this letter:

You are not safe. Not anymore.

The world is now invited to file charges against you. And when they do — we will hand you over.

You wanted power. You wanted to give orders. You wanted to be the ones who decide who lives and who dies.

Very well. Then face the consequence.

SECTION 9: CONCLUSION

We do not write this letter lightly. We write it because silence is complicity. We write it because the blood of civilians is not "collateral damage" — it is evidence. And we write it because the United States of America, if it is to deserve its place among nations, must finally accept that no one is above the law.

Not us. Not ever again.

We await your filings.

So help us God.

THE WHITE HOUSE,
January 20, 2029

Vincent Cordova
Future President of the United States 2028,

A Member of Your Global Family
On behalf of all who refuse to surrender the future without a fight.
